UPAC Expands Support to Harvesters Donations Result in 9,825 Meals to Those in Need

Kansas City, MO. – November 10, 2008. UPAC Premium Finance (UPAC®) proudly announced today that their associates collected $1,898 and nearly a quarter ton of food and turkeys in support of Harvesters 2008 Thanksgiving Food Drive. UPAC's donation included direct contributions from UPAC associates and matching funds from the Company. Harvesters indicated that the combined donations would enable them to provide meals to 9,825 people this holiday season.

Dody Alvarado, UPAC Associate and head of this year's drive, indicated, "Each year, everyone at UPAC looks forward to participating in the food drive and contributing to the Harvesters Community Food Network. They do a wonderful job and are in particular need of our help this year with the economy effecting their ability to keep the food pantry well stocked"

"Harvesters' mission of ending hunger in our community is a daunting one and relies on the continued support from everyone in our community if they are to be successful," Alvarado said. "Each month, Harvesters provides food assistance for tens of thousands of hungry children, adults and seniors. We are proud to be a part of their efforts and challenge other companies and organizations in our community to do the same."

For additional information on how you can help Harvesters, contact Paula Pratt, Director of Community Outreach at 816-929-3000 or visit their website at www.harvesters.org.
